

Fairtrade Fortnight 2012

27 February to 11 March

FRIDAY 2 MARCH 7.00pm for 7.30 at Milner Hall, St Peter Street(admission free)

Palestine – a story of Fair Trade under occupation. Taysie Arbasi, the director of Zaytoun, and olive farmer Riziq abu Nasser will speak of the challenges facing the company and farmers living and working under occupation. Zaytoun works with over 50 farmer co-operatives throughout the West Bank, sourcing fairly traded olive oil and other products. Please support this event. It is a great privilege to welcome to welcome Taysie and Riziq to Winchester.

This event is hosted by St Peter's Church.

SATURDAY 3 MARCH 10.00am to 12.00noon at St Mark's, Oliver's Battery

Big Brew and Coffee Morning with cakes and Fairtrade goods for sale.

MONDAY 5 MARCH 2.30pm to 4.30pm at The Hub, Wickham Community Centre, Mill Lane, Wickham

Big Brew an opportunity to find out why Fairtrade is important, and an opportunity for schools to find out how to become a Fairtrade School.

WEDNESDAY 7 MARCH at West Downs Business School, Romsey Road

6.00pm for 6.30pm in the Chapel (Room 2) – A talk, The Co-operative – tackling global poverty given by Helen Carter, owner of the Andover fair trade shop Fayres Fair and member of the Solent Area Committee and a Regional Board member of the Co-operative. (Admission free).

7.45pm for 8.00pm in the Shakespeare Room (Room 1) – Gala Dinner – a three-course meal using local and fair trade ingredients organised by the Events Management students of the University of Winchester. Tickets £25 per head must be booked in advance through www.fairtradegala.co.uk
